A Letter to Penpal

by Liu Yan Wai Eric 4D

Dear Kitty,

We have Chinese New Year in Hong Kong. It is usually in January or February. It changes according to our Chinese Lunar calendar. We have a long holiday for this festival.

Three days ago, my mother made some rice cakes and turnip cakes for me. They were tasty. The next day, my family and I visited my relatives and friends. I got many red packets from them. We watched lions dance, too! At night, we watched the fireworks. It was beautiful. It looked like flowers.

Do celebrate Chinese New Year in Canada? I want to know more about your festivals too. Please write back soon.

Cheers,
Eric

Last Christmas

by Lam Hei Wing 4A

I had a Christmas party at home last Christmas. First, I wrote invitation cards to invite my friends. Next, I ordered party food from McDonald's. I also asked my mother to make food like pizza, turkey, pudding and chocolate cake. Then, I decorated my home with my father. After that, I prepared some games for the party like Musical Chairs. Finally, I bought some presents for exchanging in the party. I had great time with my friends on the Christmas day!

My Favourite Storybook

by Lai Jen Tong Yan 3C

My favourite book is "I can Trick a Tiger".

The writer is Cynthia Rider and the illustrator is Alex Brychta. The story is about Floppy's dream. In the dream, everyone wants to eat it. But when it says, "A bee on your nose!" The animals are scared. I think this story is funny. I think Floppy is clever, too! I like Floppy because he is clever. I will recommend this book to my friends because this is a good book.

Wonderful Friends

by Siu Choi Lam Sandy 4B

I have two best friends. They are Kitty and Amy.

Among the three of us, Amy is the shortest and the thinnest. Kitty is the fattest. I am taller than Kitty and I am the strongest.

Kitty's hair is the longest. Amy's eyes are the biggest. My dress is the longest but Amy's dress is the shortest. Kitty's T-shirt is the most beautiful.

We are all different but we are good friends.
