If I were...

by Luk Wing Yu Wing 4D

If I were an angel, I would be a beautiful angel. I have two little wings. I can fly in the sky. I live in the beautiful heaven. It is very tidy and clean.

I always appear in the human world. When people need for help, I would use my magic wand to help them. Many people would love me because I am a helpful angel.

If I were an angel, I would be a very kind angel. I always keep smiling. Everybody loves me.

A Horrible Dining Experience by Yeung Jyu Ting Daisy 4B

I had a horrible dining experience. I went to my favourite restaurant KFC on 1st May. I had lunch in the afternoon.

I ate crispy chicken wings, hamburgers and egg tarts. Egg tarts were too sweet and a bit bitter. Chicken wings were too oily and had too much MSG. Ice cream was too sweet and hamburgers were too sour and too salty.

The waitresses were not helpful and rude because they gave me a cool welcome.

I think I will not go there again.

A Sick Experience by Leung Chung Yi Mandy 4C

Karen got her pocket money from her mother. She felt very happy. She bought fish balls from the hawker in the street. She ate lots of them. Suddenly, she felt stomach pain! She had a stomach ache. She couldn't sleep well at night, so her mother took her to a doctor. The doctor said she had a stomachache because she ate something dirty. She should drink more water and eat healthy food. After a few days, Karen felt better. She will not buy any food from the hawker again.

A Horrible Dining Experience by Chan Choi Ying Emily 4D

ABC restaurant was my favourite restaurant two months ago. However, I had dinner yesterday. I had a horrible dining experience there.

First of all, I found that the taste of the food was poor. I ordered mushroom soup as the starter. It was too salty. I had grilled steak with green pepper as the main course. The steak was tasteless. Then I tried chocolate molten cake. It was too sweet but the lemon tea was too sour. I was very disappointed.

The hygiene of the restaurant was not good either. The chairs and the tables were so dirty. There were some flies and cockroaches in the restaurant. I felt scared. I also saw plenty of rubbish in the rubbish bin and it was smelly.

I will not go to the restaurant again. It was because the food and the hygiene were bad. I hate this restaurant!

A Happy Time at Home by Chan Mei Yuk Cindy 4B

This morning, I got up early and then I went to the toilet and washed my hands and hair. I did not need to do any homework today, so I decided to have some fun with my sister.

First, we watched TV. My favourite cartoon was on TV. It was so funny. We laughed loudly.

Then, we played with our toys. We acted like we were cooking. It was happy with toys.

Finally, I had a delicious dinner at home. Mum cooked plenty of yummy food for us.

I really had a happy time at home.

A Letter about Christmas Party*Fok Oi Yiu Yoyo 4C

Dear Harry,

I had a Christmas party at school. It was great. Let me tell you about the Christmas party.

First, we had a mass in the morning. We sat on the floor quietly in the hall. We prayed and sang Christmas songs sweetly. Father Suen told us a story about the birth of Jesus Christ. We were attentive.

Next, we had a lucky draw in the hall. The classmates shouted our class numbers loudly. Some of them cheered crazily because they got presents! Then we sang Christmas carols again. Mr. Ko taught us to sing 'Silent Night'. I love this song very much. After that, we had a Christmas party in the classroom. We ate party food hungrily. It was yummy. Finally we cleaned up the tables.

I had a great time! Did you have Christmas celebration at school? Tell me more about your Christmas!

Write back soon.

Love,

Last Sunday evening, I went to Blue Dog Restaurant in Shek Kip Mei. When we arrived there, the waiter did not even say hi to us because they were talking. We waited for almost sixty minutes before we had our table although we made a reservation! The waiters and waitresses were very lazy and impolite.

We ordered grilled steak with assorted peppers and baked potato skins with sour cream. The steak was too raw and the sour cream was too spicy.

We felt very angry because the service was not professional and the food was bad. We will not go there again!

Dear Harry,

I had a Christmas party at school last week. I felt very happy. Let me tell you about the Christmas party.

First, we had a mass in the morning. We sat on the floor quietly. We prayed and sang Christmas songs happily. Father Suen told me a story about Jesus Christ. We listened to it attentively.

Next, we had a lucky draw noisily. Mr. Ko shouted our class numbers loudly. One of my classmates cried sadly because he didn't get any presents. Some students were happy because they got some toys. Then Mr. Ko taught us to sing 'Silent Night'. I liked to sing it very much.

After that, we had a Christmas party in the classroom. We ate the party food hungrily. The food was so yummy. Then we talked to our friends merrily. We also took photos with Santa Claus joyfully. Finally, we cleaned up the classroom. We cleaned the desks and put the rubbish into the rubbish bin.

I had a great time on Christmas Celebration. Did you have any Christmas celebration?
Write back soon!Your sincerely,

A Horrible Dining Experience

by Lee Chun Lok Gordon 4B

Last night, I visited a restaurant 'Tai Hing' in Lok Fu with my mum and dad. We waited for half an hour because there was just a few seats.

We ordered three set dinners. The set dinner was not good. The soup was too oily and too spicy. The beef was smelly and too salty. The rice was cold. We did not like the food.

When we finished the dinner. We saw two rats under the table. There was a lot of rubbish.

We think that we will not go there again.

Chinese New Year

by Chan Ngo Yeung Ocean 4D

Dear Andy,

How are you? My uncle lives in Canada. He visited Hong Kong during Chinese New Year. We went to different places.

On the first day of Lunar New Year, we had dim sum in a Chinese restaurant. We tried shrimp dumplings and barbecue pork buns. They were tasty.

At a quarter past ten, we went to Ocean Park. We bought some souvenirs. I bought some candies and my uncle bought some clothes. Then we rode on the cable car. It was wonderful. I took many beautiful photos with my family and my uncle. After that, we rode on the roller coaster. It was scaring. I felt very excited.

We left Ocean Park at about six o'clock. We went to Murray House and had our dinner. We ate some seafood. We enjoyed eating the crabs and fish very much.

How about you? Did you enjoy your holiday? Please write back soon.

Love,
Anita
