

St. Patrick's School Shamrock

Primary 5

Issue 23 September 2014

From Editors

Dear Children,

Hello! Summer vacation is over! What did you do? I hope you did not stop having fun with English! Now, let's share some of your writing here!

Love,

Miss Helen Chan

Miss Peony Kwan

Miss Carmen Ching

Miss Annie Chan

Let's Read

A Love Note to My Dad

by Au Yeung Jim 4D

You are the best dad in the world! When I feel bored, you play chess with me.
You always support me when I am in trouble. You chat with me when I am lonely.
You laugh with me when I am happy. You help me with my homework when I don't know how to do it. You take care of me when I am sick. You sometimes make DIY art crafts or do sports with me when you are free. I love you, Daddy!

A Horrible Dining Experience

by Tam Chun Yin Tommy 4A

Last Sunday, I went to Happy Day Restaurant with my parents. It was my favourite restaurant in Lok Fu. We had lunch there but it was a horrible dining experience for me.

The food we ordered was not yummy. I ordered tomato soup as the starter. It was too sour. And the steak was overcooked. It was very rough. I could not finish it. Then we had ice cream with fresh fruit as the dessert. But we did not see any fruit in it. We were so disappointed.

The hygiene in the restaurant was so poor, too. There was some rubbish on the floor. I also saw some flies and cockroaches near the rubbish bin. The washroom was so smelly! I felt very angry.

I would not go to Happy Day Restaurant again. The food was not delicious and the hygiene was not good. I hate this restaurant!

Mum, I Love You!

by Li Ching Yi Angela 4C

Mum, I love seeing you everywhere! I love seeing you in the toy shop. You always buy toys for me. I love seeing you in the park. You always play games with me. I love seeing you in the kitchen. You always bake cakes with me.

Mum, I love travelling with you. I love to go to Beijing with you. We can visit the Great Wall. We can eat the Peking duck and dumplings there. They are tasty. We can visit our relatives, too.

Mum, you take care of me when I am sick. When I have a temperature, you put an ice pad on my forehead. You stay with me for the whole night and take care of me patiently.

Mum, I love seeing you all the time! I love seeing you in the morning. You prepare breakfast for me. I love seeing you at night. We talk about my school life before I go to bed.

Mum, you are the best!

The Boy Who Cried Wolf

by Kong Chun Wai Jerry 4B

Narrator: The Boy Who Cried Wolf

Scene 3 Crying Wolf for the Second Time

The Boy: I need to look after the sheep every day. I feel bored. What should I do?
(look around and think) Ah! Let me play the trick again!

Narrator: The boy shouted loudly.

The Boy: (loudly) The wolf is coming! The wolf is going to eat the sheep!
(talk softly to himself) They will come now. Hahaha!

Narrator: The villagers went up the hill.

Villager 1: Where is the wolf?

Villager 2: I can't see the wolf. Where is it?

The Boy: There is no wolf! I played a trick on you!

Villager 1: Why did you play the trick on us again? You are wasting our time!

Villager 2: (angrily) We will not trust you next time!

Narrator: Since then, the villagers hated the boy.

They told the Boy's dad and mum what their son had done.

A Sick Experience

by Chow Yee Ki Kiki 4D

Early in the morning, Karen wanted to buy some food. She asked, "Mum, may I have some pocket money, please?" Her mother gave her fifty dollars. Karen was so happy. She bought some fish balls from a hawker. They were very yummy, so she bought more!

When Karen went back home, she felt unwell. She had a stomach ache. She ran to the washroom at once.

Karen's mum brought her to the hospital. The doctor checked her body. Then, the doctor asked, "Karen, what did you eat?" She told the doctor that she had some fish balls in the street. The doctor gave her advice, "You should drink more water and take more rest at home. Go home now!"

Karen learnt that she should not eat dirty food in the street.

A Sick Experience

by Leung Hin Wan Christina 4A

Yesterday, Karen received her pocket money from her mum at home. She got one hundred dollars. She was so happy.

After school, Karen was very hungry. She wanted to buy some food to eat. She saw a man selling fish balls. She paid ten dollars for five fish balls. They were very tasty.

When Karen went home, she had a stomach ache. Her mum took her to the hospital to see the doctor. The doctor told Karen that she should not buy food from hawkers in the street. She needed to take some medicine and had a rest at home.

Karen followed what the doctor said. She would not buy food from hawkers anymore because the food is dirty.

A Horrible Dining Experience

by Kwan Ka Tsun Marcus 4C

My favourite restaurant was Fat Cat Restaurant. It is a Western restaurant. It is in Lok Fu. Last Sunday, I had dinner with my family there. It was a horrible dining experience.

We ordered mushroom soup as starter. It was not hot and there was a fly in the soup! It's so frightening. Dad ordered smoked salmon with fried rice as the main course. Mum ordered grilled steak with mushroom and I ordered baby back ribs. The baby back ribs were too salty. I drank a lot of water.

Besides, it was very hot in the restaurant. There was no air-conditioning. People talked loudly in the restaurant. I had a headache after the meal!

I was very disappointed. I won't go to that restaurant again.

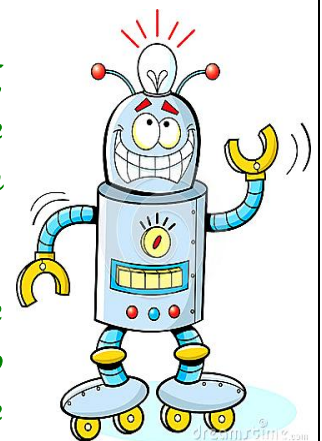

Robot Roy

by Chan Po Ting Courtney 4B

Robot Roy is our robot helper. He is hard-working and helpful, but he is sometimes careless. He cleans the windows, washes the dishes and cooks the meal. He tidies our living room, dining room and bedrooms for us every day. He never takes a rest.

One day, when Robot Roy was washing the dishes in the kitchen happily, we heard some noise suddenly. Robot Roy broke two plates and a glass carelessly. He felt very upset. He apologized. He promised that it would never happen again. We all forgave him.

I like Robot Roy because he is honest, hard-working and helpful.

My Family

by Wong Chun Ying Kimmy 4A

Hello! My name is Wong Chun Ying Kimmy. There are four members in my family. They are my father, my mother, my brother and I.

My favourite family member is my brother. He is fourteen years old. He is a primary student. We are different ages but we like to eat the same kind of food. We like chocolate most.

I like my mum, too. She is short and fat. She is a housewife. She likes to eat apples and watermelons but I like to eat mangoes. We like to surf the Internet together after dinner.

I love my family. My brother is wonderful and my mum is nice.

A Sick Experience

by Tai Chun Long Oscar 4C

Karen received her pocket money from her mum yesterday. Her mum gave her some pocket money because she was helpful. She got twenty dollars. She was happy.

In the afternoon, Karen went to a food stall in the street. She bought some fish balls because she was hungry. The fish balls were yummy.

At night, Karen felt sick. She told her mum that she didn't feel well. Therefore, they called a taxi. They went to a clinic.

The doctor asked, "What's the matter with you?" Karen said, "I have a stomach ache!" The doctor said, "I will give you some medicine. You should drink plenty of water and eat some healthy food."

Karen followed the doctor's advice. At last, she learnt that she should not eat the food from the hawkers.

A Love Note to My Cousin

by Li Ying Ying Nicky 4D

You are the best artist in the world. You are good at art! You can draw beautiful pictures and make great crafts. You usually get high marks in Visual Arts. That's why I think you are the best artist ever!

I love making crafts with you. You are the teacher and I am the student. You teach me how to make cute and lovely crafts patiently. You are generous and caring, too. Sometimes, you even give me your nice artwork. Thank you very much! I love you!

Let's Write !

- Read and think
- Think and write
- Write and check
- Check and edit
- Edit and publish
- Publish and share

English Department
St. Patrick's School