Chinese New Year

by Yeung Wai Ying Winnie 4B

Dear Yoyo,

How are you? What did you do at Chinese New Year? I want to tell you what I did.

Before Chinese New Year, I bought some beautiful new dresses and jackets and I also bought a big mandarin tree.

On Chinese New Year's Eve, I ate fish, chicken, turnip cakes and sticky rice dumplings. They were yummy. Also, I bought some colourful flowers.

On Chinese New Year's Day, I ate some sweetened lotus root and red melon seeds. They were sweet. I got some red packets. I felt happy.

On the second day of Chinese New Year, I watched a lion dance and beautiful fireworks.

On the third day of Chinese New Year, I watched a parade and saw many cartoon characters in it. I put some red and black melon seeds and candies in a sweet tray at home.

How was your Chinese New Year holiday? Please write back soon.

Cheers,
Winnie

A Misunderstanding In The Classroom

by Wu Ting Vicky 4B

One afternoon, I sat in front of Ben and he passed his English homework to me. I saw that Ben forgot to write his name on his homework, so I helped him write it.

Suddenly, my class teacher came into the classroom. She felt angry. She pointed at me and yelled, "John, stop copying homework!" I felt shocked and I explained to her that I was just writing Ben's name. I asked her to check our homework and she saw the difference.

At last, my teacher believed me. I was happy.

Tsim Sha Tsui is Great!*by Chung Chin Tong Thomas 4A

Hello, everyone. I am Thomas Chung. I'd like to promote Tsim Sha Tsui to you. You can go there by MTR or bus. Many people love to visit Tsim Sha Tsui.

Tsim Sha Tsui is a good place for shopping. You can go to The One. You can buy fruit and drinks in Aeon. You can also buy clothes and shoes. They are expensive but beautiful.

Tsim Sha Tsui is a great place for eating. You can go to Harlan's in The One. You can try its buffet lunch. It is special. You can eat desserts such as cakes and muffins. They are yummy.

Tsim Sha Tsui is a wonderful place for sightseeing, too. You can go to Dukling Tsim Sha Tsui Pier in Salisbury Road. You can enjoy the view of Victoria Harbour on an authentic Chinese sailing junk. It is relaxing. You can take beautiful photos, too.

I go to Tsim Sha Tsui with my family every week. I love this place. I am sure you will like it too. Thank you very much.

A Sick Experience*by Tin Sum Yi Summer 4C

Yesterday, Karen got some pocket money from her mum. She received thirty dollars. She wanted to buy some yummy food in Mong Kok.

When she went to a food stall in the street, she bought some spicy curry fish balls. They were twenty dollars. They were tasty but dirty.

This morning, Karen was sick. She had a stomachache. She was in pain, so her mum took her to see the doctor quickly.

In the clinic, the doctor said, "You should wash your hands before you eat. You should eat healthy food instead of junk food. Don't eat street food anymore." Karen learnt her lesson.

A Horrible Dining Experience*by Yeung Cheuk Ying Maggie 4D

Last Sunday, my family and I went to Red Cat Restaurant in Tsim Sha Tsui. We had dinner there. We thought it was a clean and beautiful restaurant.

We felt hungry. We ordered chicken soup and pea soup as our starters. The pea soup was cold and the chicken soup was too oily. Dad asked the waiter to change the soup. We had steak with fries as our main course but it was too salty.

Then, we ordered a chocolate cake and mango pudding as our desserts. The mango pudding was rotten and the chocolate cake was too sweet. We were very angry. So, mum asked the waiter to change the desserts.

Suddenly, I saw a worm on the floor! It was scary. Besides, the waiters were impolite. They talked to us rudely and put the food on our table loudly.

It was a bad dining experience. We will not go to this restaurant again!

My Christmas Party

by Lee Sin Yi Alisa 4A

Dear Harry,

How are you? I had a Christmas party at school yesterday. Let me tell you about it.

First, we had a mass in the hall in the morning. We prayed quietly and sang songs sweetly with Father Suen. We listened to a story about Jesus.

Next, we had a lucky draw. We felt excited and shouted loudly. Some students got prizes but I did not get any. I felt unhappy.

Then, we had a party in the classroom. We ate some food like turkey, pudding and hotdogs. They were yummy. We played 'Step on the Balloons'. We shouted loudly when the balloons burst.

After that, Santa Claus came. We took photos with him. Finally, we cleaned up the classroom.

I felt happy in this party. Did you have a party at school? Can you tell me about your Christmas party?

Write back soon.

Love,

Alisa
