A Friendly Letter to the EC

by Tam Tsz Wai Wallace 6C

Dear Enormous Crocodile,

How are you? Thank you for your letter. I will go to your Children Flesh Tasting Party with my ant friends but we don't want to eat children.

Firstly, I do not believe that children are the best food on earth. Children are not yummy. When they do not take a bath, they will be bitter and smelly. It is bad to have children.

Secondly, there are other kinds of food which are better than children. My friend told me that apples are the best food on earth because they are healthy, juicy and crunchy. We can also try some vegetables such as lettuce and carrots. They are full of vitamins.

I will bring some apples, lettuce and carrots to the party. I think you will like them. Please don't catch and eat children. See you at the party.

Love,

Ant

A Thank You Letter To My Friend

by Chan Mei Ki Miky 6A

Dear Apple,

I would like to thank you for your generosity and care. You are my best friend. I like you very much. You always share your happiness with me.

I enjoyed the time with you. During recess, we played badminton together. We also chatted happily, too!

You are also a patient person. I remembered once we argued angrily. The next day you gave me a sorry card to cheer me up. I will never forget this.

I wish we can be good friends forever. I wish you good health and all the best in the future.

Keep in touch. Miss you!

Yours,
Miky Chan

Sam and His Brave Dog

by Law Wing Hong Tony 6B

One Sunday afternoon, Sam was going to the park to play with his dog. Sam was a young boy with short hair. His dog was cute and big. They were walking in the street and they were relaxed.

Suddenly, a girl shouted, "Help!" Sam and his dog ran to the dirty alley at once. Sam hid himself to see what happened. He saw a robber hold a knife and the robber was going to get the girl's handbag. Sam called the police.

At that moment, Sam was so brave to ask his dog to bark at and attack the robber. Then the robber dropped his knife. Sam shouted, "Stop at once! I won't let you go. Wait for the police!"

At last, the police came here to catch the robber and sent him to the police station. The girl was saved. Sam felt happy for helping people and he said, "Good boy, dog!" Then they went to the park and played.

That night, the evening news said that the robber was sent to the jail. Sam's mum said that Sam was very brave.

A Letter To My Teacher

by Chong Chak Hin Jason 6D

Dear Miss Annie Chan,

I would like to thank you for your kindness and patience. You are one of the best teachers in this school.

You are kind. You always encourage us to try the hard questions and teach us how to do it in an easy way.

You are patient. You always come to my seat and check my work. You also show me how to use the correct verb form in my writing again and again.

I remembered once we played games and read the story "The Brave Tin Soldier" together on Friday. You persuaded me to play a role in the mini drama show. I was so happy because I could do it at last.

I will work harder and harder in my secondary school. Also I will pay attention to the verb form in each sentence in my English work.

Keep in touch. Miss you!

Love,
Jason

A Letter To My Teacher

by Siu Sin Yi Kitty 6C

Dear Miss Kam,

I would like to thank you for your kindness and patience. You are one of the best teachers in our school. I like you very much. You are always patient to us. You teach us how to do our Chinese homework.

I enjoyed your lessons very much. During Chinese lessons, you designed interesting activities for us to practise how to write a good story. I have improved a lot in these two years.

You are also a caring teacher. I remember once I got low marks in the test. I was so sad. I cried sadly in the classroom. You showed your concern and talked with me for half an hour to cheer me up. I got high marks in the next test. You gave me a little gift. I will never forget this.

I will study at a secondary school soon. I promise you that I will pay attention in lessons and study hard. I wish you good health and all the best in the future.

Keep in touch. Miss you!

Yours sincerely,
Kitty Siu

A Letter To My Class Teacher

by Lau Cheuk Lam Angel 6D

Dear Miss Tsui,

Thank you for your patience and hard work. I am happy to study in your class. I like you very much. I think you are the kindest teacher in our school.

I like your lessons. You always give us quizzes to practice our reading and writing skills. I learn many skills.

I think you are a generous teacher, too. In these two years, you bought birthday cakes and gifts for us when our birthday came.

I will remember the things you taught us. I will never give up when facing problems in my secondary school.

Wish you happiness! Keep in touch!

Love,
Lau Cheuk Lam Angel

A Robbery

by Chow Ho Nam Vincent 6B

One afternoon, Sam was going to buy food with his huge dog. They were walking near the shop. It was relaxing.

Suddenly, Sam heard a girl yell in the alley. It was very dark and dirty. Sam saw a robber hold a knife. The robber wanted to get the girl's handbag.

At that moment, Sam's dog attacked the robber. It barked angrily. The robber used his knife to attack the dog. The lady tried to stop them, but they didn't listen. The lady called the police quickly.

In the end, the policemen came and caught the robber in the alley. The policemen sent the robber to the police station. Sam's dog was bleeding. Sam brought his dog to the vet clinic.

Luckily, no one got hurt.

The Enormous Crocodile Clever Trick Number 5 by Chan Alex Long Hin 6A

The EC came back from the hot hot sun! He lost one eye and broke one leg. He was black and dark green. He was very angry and hungry. So, he wanted to catch and eat 10 fat children.

The EC wanted to catch children at SPS. When he arrived at SPS, he saw many juicy children. So, he made himself look like a smelly rubbish bin in the hall.

Soon, some children came. When they wanted to throw rubbish into the rubbish bin, the EC opened his mouth. At that moment, a teacher came. He used a chair to hit the EC. Next, he called the police. Soon, the police arrived. They caught the EC and sent him to the HK Wetland Park. He decided not to eat children anymore.
