Hungry Fox

by Wu Kai Sum Alfred 4D

Once upon a time, a hungry fox woke up in a huge room because he heard an annoying rooster crowing outside. He was very hungry. It was only six o'clock in the morning!

First, the fox went to the kitchen and tried to find some food but there wasn't any. Then, he got dressed. He wore a yellow scarf and a brown T-shirt. He also took a basket before he left home.

Next, the fox went to the street where the food stalls opened at five a.m. He walked past a bakery. The smell of fresh bread made him hungrier. Finally, he saw the supermarket. The supermarket was next to the bakery.

When the fox went inside, he picked some red apples, yellow bananas, a blueberry and some green grapes. When the shopkeeper gave him the bill, he found out he had no money. He begged the shopkeeper but it didn't work. He even kicked the fox out. The fox felt disappointed.

On the way home, the fox found a gingerbread man walking around next to the river. He couldn't believe his luck! He wanted to eat him.

"Please don't eat me! Please don't eat me!" The gingerbread man repeated, "I am a special gingerbread man, for I could use my magic fingers to turn things into food."

He wiggled his fingers and turned rocks into hamburgers and the fox ate them. He felt over the moon.

In the end, the gingerbread man and the fox were friends. They ate the hamburgers together. Since then, whenever the fox was hungry, he always went to the river because the gingerbread man lived there.
